

Sr. Echo sonographer/Echo Tech:

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS INCLUDE BUT ARE NOT LIMITED TO:

- Perform ultrasonic diagnostic procedures in accordance with accepted protocols as directed by physicians.
- Instruct patients regarding procedures to ensure cooperation and optimum test results.
- Follow prescribed safety standards in operating equipment.
- Maintain ultrasound and other equipment in appropriate operating condition.
- Maintain examination rooms and work areas.
- Promote and adhere to the organization's mission and value
- Strong technical experience with 2-D echo and Stress echo

ADDITIONAL RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Maintain accurate medical records, reports and files as directed.
- Maintain confidentiality of sensitive information.
- Work as a team member within the imaging centre and physician clinic.
- Document work processes as required.
- Perform other duties as assigned

QUALIFICATIONS:

Education:

- High school diploma or equivalent.
- Completion of an accredited Diagnostic Ultrasound Technology program required.

Certification/Licensure:

- Registration with ARDMS and/or CARDUP and CRTMO
- Certification in Echocardiography, or eligible to write exam.

Experience:

- A minimum of 2 years clinical/hospital experience
- Stress Echo and Contrast experience

Skills:

- Ability to operate ultrasound equipment.
- Ability to take vital signs.
- Ability to maintain quality control standards.
- Ability to work independently with minimal supervision.
- Ability to multi-task efficiently and effectively.
- Ability to establish and maintain effective working relationships with patients, medical staff, management and peers.

Compensation: Competitive pay plus performance based annual bonus and a Health Spending Account

Job Type: Full-time

Experience:

- clinical/hospital: 2 years (Required)
- Must be legal to work in Canada

Licence:

- ARDMS/CARDUP (Required)